DETAILED ACTION

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

.Note that boric acid, not Mg nanoparticles, is the elected stabilizer.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim1,3,5, 7, 12, 16, 17, 41-44, 46 and 53 STAND rejected under 35

U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated BARCAY et al 5820855.

The base baits & 5-50% fat, shown as a stabilizer for the water sensitive insecticides, inclusive of the soluble boric acid, meet the instant composition claims, whether used for the same purpose or not.

Claim1,3-5, 7, 9, 12, 13, 16-19, 46 & 53 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated HONSUY et al CN1155978.

Stabilizer can be considered to be the gelling agent, @ 0-50% (p. 3, # 4). Mixing is at claim 9. Acephate is at claim 3, attractant at claim 4. The high toxicity (page 3) is provided by the formulation, that of the instant as claimed, so, inherently, of the same claimed results-100% death resulted after 72 hours (Table 3) for cockroach.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claim1-9,12,15 -19,24-29, 41, 42, 46 & 53 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C.

103(a) as being unpatentable over DYKSTRA et al WO 91/07972 in view of Twydel
US006861075B2

DYKSTRA :See claim 2-baits include feeding stimulants and attractants (page 5) and humectants to retain water (50% in Example, page 6) included are protein, oil, and molasses (page 5). Mortality was more than 50% in 1 day, and 95% at 72 hours, thus meeting the instant claims, if cockroach is the insect. Boric acid (Example 1) is 5% acephate is used at 0.5% (Example 3) thus obvious to combine at these rates, when combination (page 5, lines 8, 9, claim 2) are used.

Art Unit: 1615

Twydell ; Gel baits are made here too, see exmple 3; a sufficient amount of boric acid is used to meet the instant claimed stabilizer-

It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made desiring to utilize pest control means, to use any of art recognized means, as of the Dykstra acephate/boric acid baits modified as desired to increase stability, dispersibility, compatability of ingredients, processing ease, reduced toxicity to handlers& increased effectiveness by increasing the amount of boric acid, as shown possible by Twydell.

The amounts and proportions of each ingredient are result effective parameters chosen to obtain the desired effects. It would be obvious to vary the form of each ingredient to optimize the effect desired, depending upon the particular species and application method of interest, reduction of toxicity, cost minimization, enhanced, and prolonged, or synergistic effects.

Applicant has not provided any objective evidence of criticality, nonobvious or unexpected results that the administration of the particular ingredients' or concentrations provides any greater or different level of prior art expectation as claimed, and the use of ingredient for the functionality for which they are known to be used is not basis for patentability.

The instant invention provides well known old art recognized compounds, with well known art recognized effects, applied by well known art recognized methods to achieve improved control as is well known in the art.

Double Patenting

Claim1-9, 12, 15-19, 24-29, 41, 42, 53 stand. rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 7192600. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because for reason of record.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 7/29/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Arguments are addressed above, in essence, the stabilizer is argued to not be so stated in the references- examiner finds, absent specifying the desired stabilizer, anything construed to provide some kind of stabilization or other in fact meets the claim language.

The double patenting rejection over 5820855 is withdrawn, as is the anticipation over Dykstra.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
